

Gaffney & Mulleady

AGRICULTURE, FOOD & NUTRITION SCHOLARSHIP

Sponsored by Aurivo

CALL FOR APPLICATIONS

Two scholarships worth €2,500 each on offer to students embarking on third-level agri, food or nutrition course

Aurivo is inviting applications for its Gaffney & Mulleady Agriculture, Food & Nutrition Scholarship programme. Now in its third year, Aurivo established and sponsors the programme in memory of Paddy Gaffney and Sean Mulleady who died tragically in 2013.

The competition is open to students from Aurivo's catchment area who are embarking on a level 7 or level 8 third level degree course in agriculture, food or nutrition this September. Two scholarships, each worth €2,500, will be awarded as part of Aurivo's programme to recognise and reward academic excellence and support young achievers who wish to develop careers in an agri-related profession.

2019 SCHOLARSHIP YEAR

- Two scholarships are available
- One student will be selected for each of the below scholarships:
 - Gaffney Agriculture, Food & Nutrition scholarship sponsored by Aurivo
 - Mulleady Agriculture, Food & Nutrition scholarship sponsored by Aurivo
- Scholarships will be awarded to students entering an agriculture, food or nutrition-related bachelor's degree programme in an accredited third-level institution
- The award value will be €2,500 for each recipient
- For any queries about the application process, email careers@aurivo.ie

Closing Date: Students must complete the scholarship application form no later than 28 June 2019. They may submit only one application for consideration.

Download an entry form at www.aurivo.ie